

Intensive Week

Loving Greetings

We started offering all the Unity Spiritual Education and Enrichment (SEE) classes a number of years ago.

We held an intensive week in Melbourne, one in Brisbane or on the Gold Coast and one in New Zealand. Then we decided it might be better to run the classes throughout the year with just one intensive week.

That was to take place after our annual meetings which we usually hold on the Gold Coast. Best laid plans, and all that, has meant that for the second year running we have not been able to hold the intensive in person.

We are hoping you will still be able to get a sense of community through joining in the zoom classes. Don't feel you have to do them all. Or feel free to visit during the lunch break if that's what works for you. It's noon to 1:00 p.m. each day.

On Sunday 5th September we are holding a special combined Unity gathering with Melbourne, Brisbane, and New Zealand.

Pay your registration fee:

We are encouraging everyone, whether in Australia or not to start using the Donate button on the UNS website.

Use it for your registration fee if you are taking the classes for credit, that is, you want some recognition of the work you've put it.

I'm encouraging you to register for classes, take them for credit, do the assignments and feel the satisfaction of completing the Spiritual Development part of the SEE program and receiving your certificate.

You never know it may lead you to want to continue and apply for Leadership. There's always more room at the top.

Also use the Donate button for your love offerings. As you know we do not charge for these classes preferring instead to operate on a love offering basis. This is sometimes criticised but I love the fact that we want you to go to your heart and consider what you'd love to give:

- ◆ maybe it's a monetary gift,
- ◆ it could be a heartfelt testimonial about the changes in your life,
- ◆ it could be sharing the good news with others,
- ◆ inviting them to join in,
- ◆ or it could be all those things.

You get to choose!
