Loving Greetings

It seems that my article in the last newsletter was misunderstood by some. I was not saying we will be changing our "love-offering basis" for classes. The Education Council agree with me that teaching the classes on a "love-offering basis" is working well for us and we don't wish to change it.

It has been suggested that we consider falling in line with Unity Worldwide Spiritual Institute by having a set charge. The idea of "registration by donation" would be one way to distinguish love-offerings to UNS and its teachers from those made to local ministries.

You are to give where you are moved to give. Unity Minister, Edwene Gaines was my first prosperity teacher and she taught me to give "where I receive my spiritual food."

That has served me well these many years.

Yours in loving Unity,

Ros Goldsbrough,
 Education Director

Give your love offerings the same way.

All our classes are held on a love offering basis.

The love offerings are then shared with the facilitators.

Our very dedicated facilitators give of their time and skill to teach SEE and Leadership classes out of the desire to share the wonderful life-changing Unity principles, and to ensure that future leaders will be well-trained as Unity teachers in the future.

These teachings transformed my life although Paul Hasselbeck would have me say it was, and is, the application of the Principles that does the work.

I am grateful that I found these teachings and am continuing to work with them.

Here's to loving Unity!
